Introduction

The Supreme Court of India in its landmark judgement dated 16.11.1992 (Judgement in Writ Petition (Civil) No.930 of 1990 – Indira Sawhney and Others Vs Union of India and Others) directed the Government of India, State Governments and Administrations of Union Territories to constitute a permanent body in the nature of Commission or Tribunal for entertaining, examining and making recommendations upon requests for inclusion and complaints of over-inclusion and under inclusion in the list of OBCs (Annexure-I). Government of India was also directed to specify the basis for applying the relevant and requisite socio-economic criteria to exclude socially advanced persons/sections (creamy layer) from other backward classes so that this would become a means of ensuring flow of the benefits of reservation to the really needy people.

In pursuance of the direction of the Supreme Court, the Government of India enacted the National Commission for Backward Classes Act, 1993 (Act No.27 of 1993) (Annexure-II), for setting up the National Commission for Backward Classes at-the Centre. Section 3 of the Act provides that the Commission shall consist of five members, namely, a Chairperson who is or has been a judge of the Supreme Court or of a High Court; a social scientist, two persons who have special knowledge in matters relating to backward classes; and a Member-Secretary who is or has been an officer of the Central Government in the rank of a Secretary to the Government of India. The Act came into effect on the 2nd April 1993. The Government of India constituted the Commission by its Notification No.12011/34/BCC(C)/Pt. I dated 14th August 1993 with the first team of five Members with a tenure of three years.

Section 9(1) of the Act provides that it shall “examine the requests for Inclusion of any class of citizens as a backward class in the lists and hear Complaints of over-Inclusion or under-Inclusion of any backward class in such lists and tender such advice to the Central Government as it deems appropriate. Section 9(2) of the Act further provides that the advice of the Commission shall ordinarily be binding upon the Central Government. Section 11 of the Act also provides for periodic revision of lists by the Central Government as under:-

- (1) The Central Government may at any time, and shall, at the expiration of ten years from the coming into force of this Act and every succeeding period of ten years thereafter, undertake revision of the lists with a view to excluding from such lists those classes who have ceased to be backward classes or for including in such lists new backward classes.
- (2) The Central Government shall, while undertaking any revision referred to in subsection (1), consult the Commission.

The NCBC, after studying the criteria/indicators framed by the Mandal Commission and the Commission set up in the past by different State Governments and other relevant materials formulated guidelines for considering requests for inclusions in the list of Other Backward Classes.

Creamy Layer

In the context of Supreme Court's direction regarding exclusion of socially advanced persons/sections from OBCs, the Govt. of India constituted an expert committee headed by Justice R.N. Prasad (Retd.) and three other members comprising a social scientist and two officers with wide administrative experience, to determine the criteria for identification of the socially advanced persons/sections (creamy layer) for exclusion of 'Creamy Layer' from OBCs. The Committee submitted its report on March 10, 1993 and the same was accepted by the Government of India. The Committee defined the 'creamy layer' as when a person has been able to shed off the attributes of social and educational backwardness and has secured employment or has engaged himself in some trade/profession of high status and at which stage he is normally no longer in need of reservation.

Reservation of posts for Backward Classes in the services of Government of India took effect from the 8th September 1993 when the Department of Personnel & Training issued its Office Memorandum No.36012/22/93-Estt.(SCT), dated 8th September 1993 (Annexure-IV), the Resolution No.12011/68/93-BCC (C), the then Ministry of Welfare dated 10th September, 1993 and the Resolution No.12011/9/94-BCC, the Ministry of Welfare dated 19th October, 1994 set the stage for the operationalisation of the O.M. of 13th August 1990 (Annexure-III). The O.M. dated 8th September 1993 incorporated the rule of exclusion of socially advanced persons/sections from reservation, on the basis of the recommendations of the Expert Committee, thus fulfilling the condition laid down by the Supreme Court for the implementation of the Office Memorandum of 13th August 1990.

Review of Income Criteria

The Government of India, Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment, vide Office Order No.12011/6/97-BCC dated 6th October, 2003, entrusted the task of review of the income criteria to this Commission. The Commission on 23rd January 2004 submitted its "Report on the Review of Income Criteria for Exclusion of 'Socially Advanced Persons/Sections' (Creamy Layer) among Other Backward Classes from the benefit of 27% Reservation in the Posts and Services under Government of India" to the Govt. Government of India accepted the recommendations of the Commission and vide O.M. No.36033/3/2004-Estt.(Res.) dated 09th March 2004 raised the income limit from Rs.1 lakh to Rs.2.5 lakh for determining the creamy layer amongst the OBCs (Annexure-V).

Chapter II

Functions of the Commission

The functions of the Commission are laid down in section 9 and section 11 of the Act. Under sub-section (1) of Section 9 of the Act the Commission "shall examine requests for inclusion of any class of citizens as a Backward Class in the lists and hear complaints of over-inclusion or under inclusion of any Backward Class in such lists and tender such advice to the Central Government as it deems appropriate". The term "list" in this section refers to "lists prepared by the Government of India from time to time for purposes of making provision for the reservation of appointments or posts in favour of backward classes of citizens which, in the opinion of that Government, are not adequately represented in the services under the Government of India and any local or other authority within the territory of India or under the control of the Government of India". The term "backward classes" has been defined in clause (a) of the same section (section 2) to mean such Backward Classes of citizens other than the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes as may be specified by the Central Government in the lists".

Under Section 9(2) of the Act, "The advice of the Commission shall ordinarily be binding upon the Central Government". This mandatory provision is based on and incorporates the directions of the Supreme Court in the Mandal Judgement, which directed the Government of India and the State Governments/Union Territories to constitute a permanent body, in the shape of a National Commission for Backward Classes and the State Commissions for Backward Classes and that the "advice tendered by such bodies shall ordinarily be binding upon the Government" (vide extract of the Judgement at Annexure-I).

Section 11 of the Act enjoins upon the Central Government to undertake revision of the lists of backward classes at the expiration of ten years after the Act came into force and thereafter every succeeding period of ten years, and enables it to undertake such revision at any time, with a view to excluding from such lists those classes who have ceased to be backward classes or for including in such lists new backward classes. Under sub-section (2) of this Section, the Central Government is required to consult the Commission while under-taking such revision. While performing its functions under Section 9(1) of the Act, the Commission has been vested with all the powers of a civil court trying a suit and in particular, in respect of the summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person from any part of India and examining him on oath; requiring the discovery and production of any document; receiving evidence on affidavits; requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office; issuing notices for the examination of witnesses and documents; and any other matter which may be prescribed.

Section 8(2) empowers the Commission to regulate its own procedure. Sections 14 and 15 provide that the Commission shall prepare its annual report for each financial year which together with a memorandum of action taken on the advice tendered by the Commission under Section 9 and the reasons for the non-acceptance, if any, of any such advice and the audit report shall be laid by the Central Government before each House of Parliament.

As per the procedure laid down by the Commission under Sub-Section (2) of Section (8) of the National Commission for Backward Classes Act, 1993 the advice of the Commission may be formulated unanimously or by consensus or by majority. Where there is no unanimity or consensus, the advice of the majority will be tendered as the Commission's advice but the dissenting advice also will be furnished to Government. In regulating its procedure under Section 8(2) of the Act, the Commission has been guided by the principles of objectivity, transparency and speed. In fact soon after the Commission was established, it took the following steps under Section 8(2) of the NCBC Act, 1993 :-

- (i) Formulated the procedure for examination of requests for inclusion in the lists and complaints of over-inclusion or under-inclusion in the Central list of Backward Classes. (Annexure-VI)
- (ii) Formulated guidelines for consideration of requests for inclusion and complaints of under-inclusion in the Central list.
- (iii) Prepared questionnaire for obtaining data in respect of requests for inclusion of castes/communities.

The Commission has been making additions and improvements to this procedure from time to time, based on experience and according to needs.

III Central Educational Institutions (Reservation in Admission) Bill, 2006

Justice S. Ratnavel Pandian, Chairperson of National Commission for Backward Classes, tendered oral evidence before the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Human Resource Development on 1st November 2006 in connection with the 'Central Educational Institutions (Reservation in Admission) Bill, 2006'.

Judgement Writ Petition (Civil) No.930 of 1990 – Indira Sawhney
Versus Union of India
And others (16.11.1992)

THE FOLLOWING DIRECTIONS ARE GIVEN TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, THE STATE GOVTS. AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF UNION TERRITORIES

123. (A) The Government of India, each of the State Governments and the Administrations of Union Territories shall, within four months from today, constitute a permanent body for entertaining, examining and recommending upon requests for inclusion and complaints of over-inclusion and under-inclusion in the lists of other backward classes of citizens. The advice tendered by such body shall ordinarily be binding upon the Government.

(B) Within four months from today the Government of India shall specify the bases, applying the relevant and requisite socio-economic criteria to exclude socially advanced persons/sections ('creamy layer') from 'Other Backward Classes'. The implementation of the impugned O.M. dated 13th August 1990, shall be subject to exclusion of such socially advanced persons ('creamy layer').

This direction shall not however apply to States where the reservations in favour of backward classes are already in operation. They can continue to operate them. Such States shall however evolve the said criteria within six months from today and apply the same to exclude the socially advanced persons/sections from the designated 'Other Backward Classes'.

(C) It is clarified and directed that any and all objections to the criteria that may be evolved by the Government of India and the State Governments in pursuance of the direction contained in clause (B) of Para 123 as well as to the classification among backward classes and equitable distribution of the benefits of reservations among them that may be made in terms of and as contemplated by clause (1) of the Office Memorandum dated 25th September 1991, as explained herein, shall be preferred only before this court and not before or in any other High Court or other court or Tribunal. Similarly, any petition or proceeding questioning the validity, operation or implementation of the two impugned Office Memorandums, on any grounds whatsoever, shall be filed or instituted only before this Court and not before any High Court or other Court or Tribunal.

124. The Office Memorandum dated August 13, 1990 impugned in these writ petitions is accordingly held valid and enforceable subject to the exclusion of the socially advanced members/sections from the notified 'Other Backward Classes', as explained in para 123(B).

Clause (i) of the Office Memorandum dated September 25, 1991 requires – to uphold its validity – to be read, interpreted and understood as intending a distinction between backward and more backward classes on the basis of degrees of social backwardness and a rational and equitable distribution of the benefits of the reservations amongst them. To be valid, the said clause will have to be read, understood and implemented accordingly.

Clause (ii) of the Office Memorandum dated September 25, 1991 is held invalid and inoperative.

The Writ Petitions and Transferred Cases are disposed of in the light of the principles, directions, clarifications and order contained in this Judgement.

No costs.
